Courmayeur, Valle d'Aosta

TRENO

La stazione ferroviaria di Aosta è ubicata nell'immediata prossimità della stazione di partenza della telecabina che collega la città al comprensorio sciistico di Pila. Aosta è collegata direttamente con le stazioni di Torino Porta Nuova e Torino Porta Susa, con un numero frequente di corse (1 ogni ora nei momenti di maggior flusso). Il tempo di percorrenza della tratta è di 120 minuti. Le principali stazioni ferroviarie valdostane che si incontrano lungo il tracciato (Pont-Saint-Martin, Verrès e Chatillon / Saint-Vincent) sono collegate alle valli laterali da servizi bus con partenze generalmente correlati agli orari dei treni. E' possibile proseguire il viaggio in treno dalla stazione di Aosta fino alla caratteristica stazione di Pré-Saint-Didier, ai piedi del Monte Bianco, dove termina la linea ferroviaria. Arrivare in treno da Milano è invece possibile in circa 180 minuti, con un cambio treno alla stazione di Chivasso.

AUTO

Torino è collegata direttamente con l'autostrada A5 e dista solo 55 km da Pont-Saint-Martin, porta "Est" della Valle e primo comune che si incontra entrando in Valle d'Aosta; 98 km dal capoluogo regionale Aosta (uscita Aosta Est) e 136 da Courmayeur. Provenendo da Milano (164 Km), lungo l'autostrada A4 occorre imboccare il raccordo a Santhià, in direzione Aosta. Limitato anche il tempo di percorrenza per chi proviene da Genova (226 km). La rete autostradale valdostana è in buone condizioni ed è interessata da traffico regolare, che si intensifica nel weekend. La rete stradale interna è altrettanto ben sviluppata, le strade delle valli laterali sono percorribili tutto l'anno, eccetto alcuni valichi (Piccolo e Gran San Bernardo - generalmente transitabili solo nei periodi compresi tra maggio ed ottobre). Si può giungere in Valle anche dal versante francese o svizzero attraverso i due trafori del Monte Bianco e del Gran San Bernardo, percorrendo rispettivamente le statali n°26 e n°27. Le distanze massime per gli spostamenti interni sono comunque comprese entro i 130 Km e dal capoluogo qualsiasi punto della regione è raggiungibile in non più di 1h30', fatte salve situazioni di traffico intenso.

AUTOBUS

Collegamenti nazionali: le società concessionarie locali di trasporto pubblico offrono un servizio giornaliero di autolinee da / per Torino e Milano in partenza da Cervinia, Aosta, Courmayeur. I pullman effettuano anche fermate intermedie sia in Valle d'Aosta sia in Piemonte. Collegamenti internazionali: le società concessionarie locali di trasporto pubblico offrono servizi giornalieri o settimanali da/per Bourg Saint Maurice, Chamonix e Chambéry in partenza da Aosta e Courmayeur e da/per Martigny in partenza da Aosta.
